

Worst case bounds in the presence of correlated uncertainty

Arnold Neumaier

University of Vienna, Austria email: Arnold.Neumaier@univie.ac.at

Abstract

Techniques are presented for proving worst case error bounds for the displacements of truss structures with uncertain stiffness coefficient, in the important case when the uncertainties are correlated. This includes the discussion of an appropriate deterministic model for uncertainty correlation.